Homeowner rehabilitation activities, public services activities, public facility activities and administrative activities were planned Citywide with 100% or $1,213,961 of the CDBG funds and provided based on client eligibility and project, of which income is one of the criteria.

Leveraging

Explain how federal funds leveraged additional resources (private, state and local funds), including a description of how matching requirements were satisfied, as well as how any publicly owned land or property located within the jurisdiction that were used to address the needs identified in the plan.

The City of Scottsdale utilizes federal CDBG, HOME, and Housing Choice Voucher Programs to assist low-income persons. On a local level, Scottsdale allocates General Funds for brokerage services, domestic violence shelter services, legal services, regional shelter services and senior services. The City also allocates Endowment Funds for community projects and youth programs. In addition, the City allocates Scottsdale Cares funds to promote positive development, self-sufficiency, and address crisis needs. Scottsdale Cares is a utility bill donation program that allows residents to donate $1 on every utility bill to be allocated to social service agencies. Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community (SRPMIC) Funds support regional shelter services, congregate meal programs for seniors and home delivered meals for seniors in the community.

Non-federal resources allocated:

- $180,000 Scottsdale Cares Fund
- $130,000 SRPMIC
- $34,500 Scottsdale General Funds

Multiple publicly owned properties within the City of Scottsdale were used to address the needs identified in the FY 25/26 Annual Action Plan. The Year 5 Action Plan implements the fifth year of activities that will address the goals established in the City of Scottsdale 2025/2029 Consolidated Plan. During this process we completed 90% of our goal for the Housing Rehabilitation programs. Accomplishments include unduplicated clients, in PY 25 six clients were actually assisted multiple times with the Emergency Repair Program.

Discuss how these outcomes will impact future annual action plans.

Future Annual Action Plans will provide additional information on program changes that are currently in development as the City continues to determine the needs of residents in Scottsdale. During the coming years, the City will continue to seek out opportunities and support organizations to expand affordable housing opportunities, homeless assistance and supportive services, and to meet the other needs of the low income residents. Through the use of CDBG funds, the City offers grants to low-income households for emergency repairs and accessibility modifications for disabled homeowners.

Include the number of extremely low-income, low-income, and moderate-income persons served by each activity where information on income by family size is required to determine the eligibility of the activity.

N/A. The City of Scottsdale does not have public housing.

CR-35 - Other Actions 91.220(j)-(k); 91.320(i)-(j)

Actions taken to remove or ameliorate the negative effects of public policies that serve as barriers to affordable housing such as land use controls, tax policies affecting land, zoning ordinances, building codes, fees and charges, growth limitations, and policies affecting the return on residential investment. 91.220 (j); 91.320 (i)

Affordable housing development can be impeded by a variety of factors including zoning and land use policy, permitting and approval of housing development, property taxes, local building codes and development and infrastructure costs. The City has identified three primary barriers to affordable housing:

- Current market conditions such as increased land costs, high construction costs, construction liabilities and lack of developable land constrain the housing market and become barriers to affordable housing;
- Financing requirements, increasing interest rates and lending discrimination make homeownership less attainable for low and moderate income households; and
- Regulatory/policy measures such as development fees, building codes, zoning, and the approval process create obstacles to developing affordable housing. Although the ability to eliminate, or even mitigate, some of these barriers is limited, the City continues to do the following: Preserve and improve existing housing stock through Housing Rehabilitation; Leverage HOME funds for acquisition and rehabilitation; and Ensure equal access to housing by providing resources to educate and address fair housing and landlord/tenant disputes.

Actions taken to address obstacles to meeting underserved needs. 91.220(k); 91.320(j)

The City of Scottsdale took the following actions to address obstacles to meeting underserved needs including:

- The Operation Fix It program; the program works with code enforcement to preserve neighborhoods. The program has access to all three of our Housing Rehabilitation Programs, and works closely with HCA staff
- Funded programs offering rehabilitation to preserve older housing stock
- Funded non-profit agencies to provide programs and services to the elderly and frail elderly
- Increased services for basic needs

Continued to target capital improvements including but not limited to:

- Neighborhood oriented public improvements

The City of Scottsdale continued to provide services to the community, including but not limited to:

- Homeowner-occupied Housing Rehabilitation, Roof Repair and Replacement and Emergency Repair and Operation-Fix-It Programs for low-income households
- Family Self-Sufficiency Programming
- Subsidized Rental assistance (Housing Choice Voucher Program, Foster to Youth Independence housing vouchers)
- Tax counseling assistance at Senior Centers
- Emergency rent and utility assistance through Vista Del Camino

Actions taken to reduce lead-based paint hazards. 91.220(k); 91.320(j)

The following measures were taken by the City of Scottsdale to inform residents about the hazards of lead-based paint, and to ensure HUD-funded housing rehabilitation projects effectively address lead paint hazards:

- In an effort to educate citizens about lead-based paint hazards, the City distributed a copy of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) brochure and The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right to all applicants assisted through the City's Housing Rehabilitation Programs that reside in homes built prior to 1978. Applicants must sign a receipt acknowledging receipt of this brochure.
- In all housing rehabilitation activities that disturb more than 2 square feet of painted surfaces, lead-hazards are identified through an independent Risk Assessment at no cost to the homeowner. The assessment firm determines all areas where lead is present and provides a Lead-Based Paint Risk Assessment Report to the City. The report is then used to help the Housing Rehabilitation Coordinator determine what aspects of the housing rehabilitation project require lead paint safe work practices.
- A copy of the Lead-Based Paint Risk Assessment Report is given to the property owner, and the property owner must sign a Notice of Evaluation of Lead-Based Paint, as a receipt for the report. The Housing Rehabilitation Coordinator reviews the Lead-Based Paint Risk Assessment Report with the property owner to ensure they understand the information provided in the report, and acknowledge the identified components containing lead-based paint.
- Lead-based paint work is performed by certified Lead Renovation firms and is monitored by the Housing Rehabilitation Coordinator throughout the project to make certain items are correctly addressed per the specifications and in the least amount of time to avoid disruption to the household.
- In compliance with the Housing Rehabilitation Program's Relocation Policy, a property owner may be eligible for temporary relocation accommodations when the rehabilitation project requires the disturbance of materials containing lead-based paint.
- Upon completion of lead reduction work, a clearance test is conducted at the property by the assessment firm; a lead-based paint clearance test is completed to document that lead hazards were mitigated. If a contractor fails a clearance test, the expense of a second clearance test is borne entirely by the contractor. The Housing Rehabilitation Coordinator reviews the results of the clearance test with the property owner and provides them with a copy of the Clearance Test report, and the property owner must sign a Notice of Lead Hazard Reduction, as receipt for the report.

The City of Scottsdale continues to test homes constructed prior to 1978 for lead-based paint in compliance with 24 CFR part 35. All pre-1978 homes that receive assistance through the Housing Rehabilitation Programs are tested and abated if applicable. The cost associated with lead-based paint remediation continues to increase the total cost of housing rehabilitation projects. In order to keep the costs of lead-based paint testing from adding directly to the cost of each housing rehabilitation project, the City pays for lead-based paint risk assessments and corresponding clearance tests at no cost to the property owner's project.

Actions taken to reduce the number of poverty-level families. 91.220(k); 91.320(j)

CR-40 - Monitoring 91.220 and 91.230

Describe the standards and procedures used to monitor activities carried out in furtherance of the plan and used to ensure long-term compliance with requirements of the programs involved, including minority business outreach and the comprehensive planning requirements

Monitoring is an on-going process of reviewing to ensure adequate performance and compliance with all applicable federal regulations and policies. Appropriate planning, implementation, communication, and follow up during each phase of the activities are effective tools for improving performance and avoiding non-compliance. The typical phases of an activity include the initial allocation of funding, written agreements (contract), monthly progress/performance reports, monthly demographic reports, request of expenditure reimbursements, and closing reports.

Forms of Monitoring:

- Monitoring may include, but is not limited to the following procedures:
- Review of monitoring reports, audits, and management letters at the time of application
- Review of Federal requirements during contract signing
- Review of periodic reimbursement requests and periodic performance reports
- Technical Assistance (meetings, telephone calls, site visits, written correspondence, etc.)
- Desk reviews (consists of in-house reviews of documentation submitted to the reviewer, program files, and financial records)
- On-site reviews (consists of reviewing program files and financial records)

Risk Assessment:

The level of monitoring to be conducted is determined by a risk analysis assigned to the entity. Entities receiving CDBG/HOME funds will be evaluated annually to determine the appropriate risk classification. Entities deemed to be “low risk” will be subject to desk review. Entities deemed to be “high risk” will be subject to an on-site monitoring review.

To be classified as “low-risk”, an entity must generally meet the following criteria:

- An on-site visit has been conducted within the last two years
- There has been insignificant or no compliance or performance problems noted

To be classified as “high-risk”, an entity may meet one or more of the following risk factors:

- An on-site visit has not been conducted within the last two years
- The entity is new to the CDBG or HOME Program
- There has been a high rate of employee turnover or turnover in key staff positions

- There has been noncompliance with one or more contract provisions
- There were significant findings and/or concerns noted in previous desk reviews or on-site monitoring visits
- There are significant unresolved audit findings
- There has been a high incidence of citizen or vendor complaints
- Reimbursement requests or performance reports contain inaccurate information
- There is a demonstrated need for on-going technical assistance. Please note the risk designations are not limited to the above-stated conditions and may be assigned due to other circumstances, if required. Public agencies are monitored every other year. Housing-related agencies are monitored annually

Minority Business Outreach: The City of Scottsdale will comply with Executive Order 14151 and has determined that MBE/WBE practices are no longer appropriate.

The city of Scottsdale agrees that its compliance in all respects with all applicable Federal anti-discrimination laws is material to the U.S. Government's payment decisions for purposes of section 3729(b)(4) of title 31, United States Code.
