

Medication Assistance Program

Need help paying for your prescription medication?

The Medication Assistance Program may be able to help eligible Scottsdale residents with a portion of their medication costs, making essential prescriptions more affordable.

To participate, you must:

Be a Scottsdale resident and provide proof of lawful presence.

Fill your prescription or purchase your medication at Fry's or Walgreens.

Provide proof of your prescription.

Complete a phone assessment with a caseworker.